PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

On behalf of the Blayney A and P Association, I would like to welcome you to the 148th Annual Blayney Show.

It's exciting to see the younger generation's interest in the show continue to thrive. Children's entries in the cooking and homemade products rose to records numbers last year and the cattle shed was a buzz of youthful enthusiasm. Of course, this doesn't happen without the efforts and encouragement of parents and teachers.

I would like to congratulate our 2025 Young woman, Eva Price. By the time the Show is held, Eva will have represented Blayney at the Zone 6 final in Eugowra. Good luck! Regardless of the outcome, I hope the experience of this competition has been rewarding and insightful. Thank you for being a great ambassador for Blayney and the wider show movement.

A huge thank you to the entire Blayney Community for getting behind the show. Through sponsorship, advertising, volunteering and donated goods, this show reflects the community that supports it. Thank you also to Blayney Shire Council, who have prepared the grounds and amenities to a high standard for Show Day.

Whether you're attending the show to ride a horse, displaying poultry, enjoy the Side show or anything in-between, I believe Blayney show has something for everyone. I hope you have a great day out and enjoy the hospitality for which Blayney Show is renowned!

Ben Meek, President

"Anahdale" is the site where the first Blayney Show was held in 1878, run by the Marsden family. There were 56 events, and up to 2,000 visitors (I think) and catering was bread, beef and beer for all the visitors.
